With Threat to Appeal Case and Contributes $15 and Costs.

Mike Carroll, jithus driver, crawled out of a precarious position late yes-= | terday when he paid a fine of $15 and at 406.338 contos ($438.844.040.) costs in police court.

Michael became more dubious about the situation he was in the longer he remained in his cell. He had been fined $25 and costs in police court in the morning for having assaulted Tom Condis. In order to avoid payment of the fine he had announced his intention of appealing the case. In this way he thought to put one over on the police Authorities, however, had prepared a warrant charging him with resisting an officer and intended rearresting him s soon as he filed his appeal bond.

He got out of the mess before he was confronted with the new charge when charge of assault and battery.

C. H. Dibbern & Son and Rathburn tery. Brothers, Both Hardware Firms Victims of Thieves.

Rock Island police late this afternoon were enlisted in the hunt for burglars who last night visited Milan. entering two stores in the village and escaping after looting both places. H. Dibbern & Son, and Rathburn Bros., both hardware stores, situated on opposite corners of Third and Dixon streets, were broken into. It is thought that the burglaries occurred about midnight as men were seen in the Dibbern store at that time by residents of the village but no attention was paid to them as it was thought that they were members of the firm or employes.

They made the biggest haul at Dibbern & Son store. Five dollars was taken from the cash register, several watches were stolen and a valuable set of silver knives and forks were taken. There is a small amount of other stock missing also. Entrance was gained by breaking a window on the side of the store

At Rathburn Brothers' store a small quantity of merchandise was taken. Entrance was gained by smashing a window pane in the rear. Seeking Clews.
